Mrs. Ella Smith.

Mrs. Ella F. (Coates) Smith died at her home in Newport Center Aug. 24, 1918. Mrs. Smith was born in Bulwer, P. Q., July 17, 1863. She was the daughter of Nahum O. and Mary (Simons) Coates and was the oldest of six children. At the age of 25 years she was converted and united with the Adventist Christian church of which she was a faithful member and a great worker until her death. June 28, 1880, she was united in marriage to Herman L. Smith of Newport Center and four children, three sons and a daughter were born to them. September 28, 1895, they buried little Harold aged three years, four months and two days. Mrs. Smith had a beautiful Christian character and won many warm friends. She was a faithful wife, a loving mother, a kind neighbor and will be greatly missed in the church and community where she lived for nearly forty years. She was at the time of her death the president of the W. H. and W. P. society, and until a few weeks ago, when strength failed her, was an ardent Red Cross worker.

She leaves to mourn her loss two sons, B. O. Smith of Orleans, Rev. C. L. Smith of South Elliot, Me., and a daughter, Mrs. Sarah Wilcox of Orleans, four grandchildren and three sisters, besides a large number of relatives and friends.

The funeral was held at the A. C. church in Newport Center Tuesday forenoon, August 27th. Eld. E. J. Perkins, pastor of the church officiating.

Home is not home, Mother is not there,
Dark is her room, empty is her chair.
Now will she rest from her labor and care,
Till that morning fair.

Sleep, Mother, sleep, with your hands on your breast,
Poor, weary hands, they needed their rest.

Well have we loved, but God loved you best,
'Tis thy God giveth rest.

Card of Thanks—We wish to express our sincere thanks to all who in any way assisted us in the sickness and death of our dear wife and mother.

Put your wardrobe on a war basis

That means that the clothes you do buy should be the kind that make the best possible use of the labor and materials put into them. It means clothes that not only wear a long time but keep their shape a long time. It means "conserving" clothes.

Hart Schaffner & Marx make that kind and we sell them

Now if you're going to buy clothes at all—and you shouldn't unless you absolutely need them—that's the only kind you've a right to to buy—clothes that save.

It's "dollar economy," too. You pay a little more now—but they wear so well you spend less in the long run.

Liberty Bond Notice

The holders of Liberty Bonds of the first and second issues may now have their bonds converted into bonds bearing 4 1/2% interest by leaving same with this bank. All MATURED coupons should be removed.

Quite a good many of our subscribers have not yet called for their bonds and such owners must give us the necessary authority before their bonds will be converted.

The time for doing this extends to November 9th, 1918, but we are anxious to have this well out of the way before the next Liberty Loan comes in the fall.
